BLESSING

“Truly God is good to Israel, to those whose hearts are pure.” Psalm 73:1

Our Perspective vs. God's Perspective

A psalm of Asaph.

- 1 Truly God is good to Israel, to those whose hearts are pure.
- 2 But as for me, I almost lost my footing. My feet were slipping, and I was almost gone.
- 3 For I envied the proud when I saw them prosper despite their wickedness.
- 4 They seem to live such painless lives; their bodies are so healthy and strong.
- 5 They don't have troubles like other people; they're not plagued with problems like everyone else.
- 6 They wear pride like a jeweled necklace and clothe themselves with cruelty.
- 7 These fat cats have everything their hearts could ever wish for!
- 8 They scoff and speak only evil; in their pride they seek to crush others.
- 9 They boast against the very heavens, and their words strut throughout the earth.
- 10 And so the people are dismayed and confused, drinking in all their words.
- 11 "What does God know?" they ask. "Does the Most High even know what's happening?"
- 12 Look at these wicked people—enjoying a life of ease while their riches multiply.
- 13 Did I keep my heart pure for nothing? Did I keep myself innocent for no reason?
- 14 I get nothing but trouble all day long; every morning brings me pain.
- 15 If I had really spoken this way to others, I would have been a traitor to your people.
- 16 So I tried to understand why the wicked prosper. But what a difficult task it is!
- 17 Then I went into your sanctuary, O God, and I finally understood the destiny of the wicked.
- 18 Truly, you put them on a slippery path and send them sliding over the cliff to destruction.
- 19 In an instant they are destroyed, completely swept away by terrors.

- 20 When you arise, O Lord, you will laugh at their silly ideas as a person laughs at dreams in the morning. 21 Then I realized that my heart was bitter, and I was all torn up inside.
- 22 I was so foolish and ignorant—I must have seemed like a senseless animal to you.
- 23 Yet I still belong to you; you hold my right hand.
- 24 You guide me with your counsel, leading me to a glorious destiny.
- 25 Whom have I in heaven but you? I desire you more than anything on earth.
- 26 My health may fail, and my spirit may grow weak, but God remains the strength of my heart; he is mine forever.
- 27 Those who desert him will perish, for you destroy those who abandon you.
- 28 But as for me, how good it is to be near God! I have made the Sovereign Lord my shelter, and I will tell everyone about the wonderful things you do.
